Bukowski Chair

Steven Bukowski

A throwback to mid-century modern? Not quite. Extreme proportions lend themselves to an elegant and surprising form in this update to an old classic. A smooth, yet decisive, shift between solid and slender creates the chair's curvaceous legs, played out like a lively dance with the material. Meanwhile the balance of the weight towards the ground gives the chair a strong and monumental feel. Centred in the sculptural structure is an upholstered seat, making it possible to create different looks through the combinations of wood and textile. With its bold geometry, the Bukowski chair shows off a striking silhouette, instantly recognisable, indefinably familiar, and completely its own.

Materials

Walnut, oak or painted beech with upholstery

About the Designer

The work of Steven Bukowski is guided by traditional practices and fused with a distinctive playful approach. From his Brooklyn-based studio, he creates custom furniture for commercial and residential use, and designs for renowned design brands within design homewares, lighting, and furniture. A rich understanding of form, colour, materials, and manufacturing processes lends itself to items that are thoughtfully designed for a lifetime of use.

About New Works

New Works presents a collection at the intersection between old and new. Light and dark. Design and art. Our work pays homage to the strong Scandinavian history of craftsmanship and materiality, whilst challenging the contemporary forms of today. We collaborate with an international group of renowned designers and artisans, who display a matching fascination with sculptural forms and honest materials. These collaborative pursuits convey our love of the sensual, and of the bold.
